Shares will be deemed to be issued by the Company as provided for in article 11.5.2.
- 11.3.2 The Board may resolve to issue, and may issue, authorised shares only:
 - 11.3.2.1 for adequate consideration to the Company as determined by the Board (subject to and in terms of section 40); or

11.3.5 Notwithstanding article 12, ordinary shareholders in general meeting may authorise the Board (generally or specifically) to issue unissued securities and/or grant options to subscribe for unissued securities as the Board in its discretion deems fit, provided that such transaction(s) has/have been approved by the JSE and comply with the JSE Listings Requirements to the extent applicable.

11.4 Issue of capitalisation shares

Capitalisation shares may be issued by the Board as provided for in article 11.1.2 read with section 47, provided that they shall first be offered to affected holders or all shareholders, as the case may be, in terms of and subject to article 12 (section 47(1)).

11.5 Timing of issuance of shares

Subject to section 40(5) to (7), when the Company has received in full the consideration approved by the Board for the issuance of any shares:

11.5.1 those shares are fully paid (section 40(4)(a)); and

11.5.2 the Company must issue those shares and cause the name of the holder to be entered on the Company's securities register in accordance with sections 49 to 51 (section 40(4)(b)). For the sake of clarity, at the time when the Company has received in full the consideration approved by the Board for the issuance of shares such shares shall at that time, in the absence of anything to the contrary specified in the resolution to issue such shares as to the timing of the issue, be treated as having been issued by the Company.

11.6 Fully paid up securities may be listed

The Company may apply for the listing on the JSE of any securities which are fully paid up and freely transferable.

11.7 Certificated or uncertificated shares/securities

11.7.1 Shares or other securities which are of a class listed on the JSE, shall be issued in the form of "uncertificated" shares or securities unless the person to whom the shares or other securities are to be issued elects, prior to their issue, to have them issued as "certificated" shares or securities (section 49(2)).

11.7.2 Shares or other securities which are not of a class listed or to be listed on the JSE shall be issued in the form of "certificated" shares or securities.

11.8 Entries in the securities register

The Company shall as soon as practicable after issuing any securities subject to article 11.9, enter or cause to be entered in its securities register, in respect of every class of securities issued:

11.8.1 the total number of those securities that are held in uncertificated form; and

11.8.2 with respect to certificated securities, the names and addresses of the persons to whom the certificated securities were issued and the number of certificated securities issued to each of them, and such other information that is required to be entered into the certificated securities register in terms of section 50(2) (section 50(2) and regulation 32).

11.9 Provision of information to the Company

A person to whom securities have been issued or transferred shall, in order for that person's name to be entered in the securities register with the Company or the records to be administered and maintained by a participant or CSD as the Company's uncertificated securities register in terms of section 50(3), provide to the Company or the participant or CSD, as the case may be, all the information relating to that person which is required to be included in the securities register including the uncertificated securities register in terms of the Companies Act and the Companies Regulations or in terms of this MOI (regulations 32 to 34).

11.10 Registered shareholders and other securities holders

A person:

11.10.1 acquires the rights associated with any particular securities of the Company when that person's name is entered in the Company's securities register as a person to whom those securities have been issued (section 37(9)(a)); and

11.10.2 ceases to have the rights associated with any particular securities of the Company when the transfer to another person, re-acquisition by the Company, or surrender to the Company of those securities has been entered in the Company's securities register (section 37(9)(b)).

11.11 Alteration of shareholders' rights (business rescue)

When, in terms of a proposed business rescue plan, shares of a particular class of shares in the Company are to be issued other than pro rata to existing shareholders of that class in the proportion of their shareholdings in the Company in that class immediately prior to that issue, or shares of a new class are to be issued other than pro rata to the ordinary shareholders in the proportions of their ordinary shareholdings in the Company immediately prior to that issue, such proposed business rescue plan shall in terms of this article be regarded as an alteration of the rights of the holders of shares in each class of issued shares for purposes of section 152(3)(c), and the relevant proposed business rescue plan will in terms of this article need to be approved by the applicable class(es) of shareholders in terms of sections 152(3)(c) and will be subject to the provisions of the JSE Listings Requirements.

11.12 Rights offer (exclusion of non-residents)

11.12.1 Any pro rata offer of any securities to any persons shall be subject to the possible exclusion of any persons who are prohibited by any law of any country to whose jurisdiction they are subject, from participation in that offer.

11.13 No lien on listed shares

The Company shall not have any lien whatsoever on any issued shares of the Company which are, or are to be, listed on the JSE.

11.14 Odd-lot offers

11.14.1 For purposes hereof:

11.14.1.1 "odd lot" means any total holding by a shareholder of less than 100 shares (or such other number as may be permitted by the JSE), or any total holding by a securities holder of less than 100 securities (or such other number as may be permitted by the JSE);

11.14.1.2 "odd-lot offer" means an offer by the Company to the holders of odd-lots in terms of which the holders of the odd-lots may elect to sell their odd-lot, and subject to the JSE Listings Requirements to the extent applicable, may or may not provide that the holders may elect to retain their odd-lot holding.

11.14.2 The Company may make and implement odd-lot offers in accordance with the JSE requirements or as otherwise permitted by the JSE; and if it does so and any shareholder or securities holder who qualifies to participate in that odd-lot offer does not elect any of the election alternatives (namely to retain their odd-lots, to sell their odd-lots or to increase their holdings to that number of shares or securities so as to eliminate their odd-lot holding) in accordance with the terms of the odd-lot offer, such holder (and any person with a beneficial interest in such odd-lots) shall be deemed to have agreed to sell odd-lots, and the Company shall be entitled (on implementation of the odd-lot offer) to cause the odd-lots to be sold on behalf of such persons on such terms and conditions as the Board may determine; provided that the Company shall account to the registered holders, after deducting the costs of the sales, if any, for the remaining proceeds attributable to them pursuant to the sale of such odd-lots.

11.14.3 Whenever shares or other securities are to be offered or issued by the Company pro rata to any persons, such offer and issue shall be subject to any rounding off of entitlements to avoid odd-lots of such securities.

11.15 Fractions

If, on any issue of shares or other securities, or on any consolidation or sub-division of shares or other securities, or on any other transaction with the Company, shareholders or other securities holders would, but for the provisions of this article, become entitled to fractions of shares or other securities, all allocations of such shares or other securities shall be rounded up or down based on standard rounding convention (i.e. allocations will be rounded up to the nearest whole number if they are equal to or greater than 0.5, or rounded down to the nearest whole number if they are less than 0.5) resulting in the allocations of whole shares or other securities and no fractional entitlement.

12. RIGHTS OF PRE-EMPTION WITH RESPECT TO ISSUES

12.1 Issues with respect to an existing class of issued shares

12.1.1 If the Company proposes to issue (including as capitalisation shares) shares of any class of shares of which some have already been issued or to issue any options exercisable for shares of that class or any securities convertible into shares of that class as contemplated by section 42 (such options and securities being referred to as "affected securities"), other than:

12.1.1.1 affected securities to be issued in terms of pre-existing options or conversion rights (which have previously been issued after following the applicable procedure in this article 12); or

12.1.1.2 affected securities to be issued in terms of section 40(5) to (7); or

12.1.1.3 affected securities to be issued for the acquisition of assets, then each person already holding issued affected securities in the class of affected securities proposed to be issued (collectively referred to as "affected holders") has the right, before any other person who is not an affected holder in that class, to be offered and within 10 (ten) business days of the date such offer is made to subscribe for, or in the case of capitalisation shares accept, that number of the affected securities proposed to be issued which in relation to the total number of affected securities proposed to be issued bears the (as close as possible) same ratio (as determined by the Board) as the number of affected securities in that class registered in that affected holder's name bears to the aggregate total number of issued affected securities in that class, calculated as at the date the offer was made.

12.1.2 The offer to each of the affected holders in the class concerned shall, in order to be valid, stipulate only the issue price or in the case of capitalisation shares deemed issue price per affected security in compliance with article 11.3, the number and class of affected securities which are being offered to the affected holders concerned, the total number of affected securities proposed to be issued, and the identity of any third person to whom it is proposed that any excess affected securities not taken up by the affected holders in terms of this article and article 12.5 will be offered in terms of article 12.6.

12.2 Issue with respect to a new class of shares

12.2.1 If the Company proposes to issue (including as capitalisation shares) shares of any new class of shares not previously issued, or to issue any options for shares of that new class or any securities convertible into shares of that new class (referred to as "new affected securities") other than:

12.2.1.1 new affected securities to be issued in terms of section 40(5) to (7); or

12.2.1.2 new affected securities to be issued for the acquisition of assets, then each ordinary shareholder holding issued ordinary shares has the right, before any other person who is not an ordinary shareholder of the Company, to be offered and within 10 (ten) business days of the date such offer is made to subscribe for or in the case of capitalisation shares accept, a percentage of the new affected securities proposed to be issued equal to the voting power of that ordinary shareholder's general voting rights, calculated as at the date the offer was made.

12.2.2 The offer to each of the ordinary shareholders concerned in terms of this article shall in order to be valid, stipulate only the issue price or in the case of capitalisation shares deemed issue price per new affected security in compliance with article 11.3, the number of new affected securities which are being offered to the ordinary shareholder in question, the total number of new affected securities proposed to be issued, and the identity of any third person to whom it is proposed that the excess new affected securities not taken up by ordinary shareholders will be offered in terms of article 12.6.

12.3 Delivery of offer and acceptance period

An offer made by the Company in terms of article 12.1 or 12.2 shall be delivered to each affected holder or shareholder to whom the offer is to be made ("recipient"), and, when made by the Company, be irrevocable and open for acceptance by the recipient concerned by notice of acceptance in writing delivered to the Board so as to be received by the Board within 7 (seven) business days of the offer being delivered to the recipient concerned ("acceptance period").

12.4 Acceptance of the offer

A recipient receiving an offer in terms of article 12.1 or article 12.2 shall be entitled to accept the offer in respect of the number of affected securities or new affected securities of the class that recipient has been offered as specified in the offer ("offered securities") or fewer than that number, or to specify if that recipient wishes to subscribe for or accept a greater number of shares (or options) in addition to the number of securities that recipient has been offered ("excess securities"), by notice of acceptance delivered by the accepting recipients to the Board within the acceptance period in terms of article 12.3.

12.5 Allocation of excess securities

12.5.1 Any number of offered securities not accepted by a recipient shall be re-allocated by the Board among other recipients, who have delivered a notice of acceptance to the Board specifying a wish to take up excess securities, pro rata among them as nearly as possible (as determined by the Board) in the applicable proportions contemplated by articles 12.1 and 12.2, as the case may be, in each case up to and not exceeding the number of excess securities specified in their respective notice(s) of acceptance.

12.5.2 If all the offered securities with respect to a particular class of shares (other than with respect to ordinary shares) offered by the Company in terms of article 12.1 are not taken up and subscribed for by the affected holders to whom the offer was made in terms of article 12.1, the Board shall then offer the excess securities which had not been accepted by the recipients to the ordinary shareholders of the Company, on the same basis changed as is necessary as provided for in article 12.2, 12.3, 12.4 and 12.5.1.

12.6 Offer of remaining shares (options) to third party

12.6.1 If all the offered securities offered by the Company in terms of article 12.1 or 12.2 or 12.5.2 are not taken up and subscribed for by all or any of the recipients to whom the offer was made, the Board shall be authorised to then offer the remaining offered securities which had not been accepted within the applicable acceptance period referred to in article 12.3 to any other person or persons approved of by the Board.

12.6.2 Any offer to such approved person contemplated by article 12.6.1 must be made within the 60 (sixty) days immediately following the expiry of the applicable acceptance period, at the same issue price per offered security and on the same terms and conditions as were offered to the recipients in terms of articles 12.1 or 12.2 or 12.5.2, as the case may be.

12.7 Pre-emption provisions to apply again

If, after having followed the procedures in articles 12.1 to 12.6, any of the remaining offered securities have not been subscribed for or accepted, and issued to, the approved person(s) as provided for in article 12.6 within the applicable 60 (sixty) day period, or such extended period as may be necessary to allow for any statutory or regulatory approvals to be obtained, if any, then such remaining offered securities shall not be issued except after again following the applicable pre-emption provisions of article 12.

12.8 Issue of shares during a business rescue

Except to the extent that an approved business rescue plan provides otherwise (including a business rescue plan approved in terms of article 11.11) a pre-emptive right of a shareholder of the Company as contemplated in section 39 and this article 12, does not apply with respect of an issue of shares by the Company in terms of the approved business rescue plan (section 152(7)).

12.9 Commission and brokerage

12.9.1 The Company may pay to any person:

12.9.1.1 a commission for subscribing or agreeing to subscribe (whether absolutely or conditionally); or

12.9.1.2 a brokerage for procuring or agreeing to procure subscriptions (whether absolutely or conditionally);

for any securities issued or to be issued by the Company, provided that, for so long as any securities of the Company are listed on the JSE, any such commission shall not exceed 10% of the consideration payable by that person to the Company for such subscription by that person for any securities.

12.9.2 Any such commission or brokerage may be calculated on the price at which the securities are issued, and may with the prior sanction of an ordinary resolution of the ordinary shareholders, be satisfied in whole or in part in fully paid shares.

13. BORROWINGS BY THE COMPANY

13.1 Borrowings

The Company may borrow without restriction, on such terms and subject to such conditions including as to the provision of security by the Company and/or others, as the Board in its discretion may from time to time determine.

13.2 Securities other than shares (debt instruments)

The Board may authorise and issue any securities which are not shares, including any debt instruments, upon such terms and subject to such conditions as approved by the Board (section 43).

14. FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE

14.1 For the subscription of options or securities

The Board may authorise the Company to provide financial assistance for the purpose of, or in connection with, the subscription for any option or securities, as contemplated in section 44, subject to and in accordance with section 44.

14.2 To directors or prescribed officers

The Board may authorise the Company to provide loans or other financial assistance to persons as contemplated in section 45, subject to and in accordance with section 45.

14.3 Other financial assistance

The Company may provide any financial assistance whatsoever to any person without restriction (subject to sections 44 and 45) on such terms and subject to such conditions as the Board in its discretion may from time to time determine.

15. SECURITIES REGISTER

The Company shall, in accordance with sections 24(4)(a) and 50, establish or cause to be established a register of its issued securities in the prescribed form and maintain its securities register in accordance with the prescribed standards (regulations 32, 33 and 34).

15.2 Provision of information to the Company

- 15.2.1 Each shareholder or other securities holder shall be responsible for providing the Company with:
- 15.2.1.1 all the information relating to that holder required for purposes of keeping and maintaining and updating the securities register, including the name, business address, residential address, postal address and available e-mail address of that holder (section 50(2)(b)(i) and (iv) read with regulation 32(2)(a), and article 33.1); and

22.16 Further notice required for postponed/adjourned meeting

The Company shall not be required to give further notice of a meeting that is postponed or adjourned unless:

 - 22.19.1.2 that are entitled to be exercised on at least one matter remaining on the agenda of the meeting, or on the matter under debate, as the case may be (section 64(10 (b))).
- 22.19.2 Any voting on a motion by shareholders for an adjournment in terms of this article 22.19 shall be decided on a show of hands, unless the chairman of the meeting or shareholders demand a poll in terms of article 23.7.
- 22.19.3 Any such adjournment by motion of shareholders at a meeting may be either:
- 22.19.3.1 "to a fixed time and place", in which event no further notice need be given to shareholder of the adjourned meeting (sections 64(10) and 64(11)(a)(i)); or

No business shall be transacted at an adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting which was adjourned.

22.22 Directors to be present at shareholders meetings

Each director of the Company shall be present for the entire duration of each shareholders' meeting, unless shareholders (or their representatives or proxies) on a show of hands request one or more or all the directors to withdraw and leave the meeting or any part of the meeting, in which event such director(s) as have been requested to leave shall leave the meeting for the period as requested.

22.23 Procedures at shareholders' meetings

Subject to the provisions of the Companies Act and this MOI, the chairman for the time being of any shareholders' meeting shall determine the procedures to be followed at that meeting.

23. SHAREHOLDERS VOTING (BY SHOW OF HANDS OR POLLING)

- 23.1 At a meeting of shareholders, voting may either be by show of hands or by polling (section 63(4)).
- 23.2 If voting on a particular matter is by a show of hands, any person, being a shareholder or its representative or proxy/ies, who is present at the meeting and is entitled to exercising voting rights, has one vote irrespective of the number of votes that person would otherwise be entitled to exercise (section 63(5)).
- 23.3 If voting on a particular matter is by polling, any person, being a shareholder or its representative or proxy/ies, who is present at the meeting and is entitled to exercise voting rights, has the number of votes determined in accordance with the voting rights associated with the shares registered in the name of the shareholder in question which that person is entitled to exercise (section 63(6)).

- 23.4 All questions, matters and resolutions arising at or submitted to any meeting of shareholders shall be decided by a simple majority of the votes cast (unless a different majority is required in terms of the Companies Act or this MOI) and shall in the first instance be decided by a show of hands (unless voting by a poll with respect to the resolution in question is specified in the notice calling the meeting, or a poll is demanded or required on that resolution in terms of the Companies Act or this MOI).
- 23.5 The person who is the chairman of the meeting will not in his capacity as chairman have a casting vote in addition to any vote he may have by virtue of being a shareholder.
- 23.6 If voting on a resolution is on a show of hands, unless a poll is demanded, a declaration by the chairman of the meeting that the resolution has been carried, or carried by a particular majority, or lost, or not carried by a particular majority, shall be final and an entry to that effect in the minute book of the Company shall be conclusive evidence of the fact. The chairman of the meeting is not required to record the number of votes (on a show of hands) and percentage of votes cast at the meeting in favour of and against the proposed resolution, or any abstentions.
- 23.7 In addition to the shareholders' right to demand a poll on any resolution in terms of section 63(7) at any meeting of shareholders, a poll on any resolution may also be demanded by:
- 23.7.1 the chairman of the meeting; or

- provided that (except in terms of section 63(7)) a poll may not be demanded on the question of the election of a chairman for the meeting, and provided further that only the chairman of the meeting (or the shareholders in terms of section 63(7)) may demand a poll on the question of any adjournment of the meeting.
- 23.8 If a poll is demanded as provided for in this article 23, it shall be taken immediately if any other resolution is already required to be taken by poll in terms of the notice convening that meeting, or if not then in such manner and at such place and time, either immediately or after an interval or adjournment not exceeding 7 (seven) days, as the chairman of the meeting directs. The demand for a poll may be withdrawn.
- 23.9 Scrutineers shall be appointed by the chairman to count the votes on a poll and to declare the result of the poll, and their declaration, which shall be announced by the chairman of the meeting for the time being, (as postponed or adjourned, delayed or interrupted) at the meeting, shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded. No objection to the admission or rejection of a vote shall be valid unless it is made to the chairman of the meeting at the meeting at which the vote in question is cast. In case of any dispute as to the admission or rejection of a vote, the chairman of the meeting for the time being shall determine the dispute and the determination of the chairman made in good faith shall be final and conclusive.
- 23.10 The demand for a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which a poll has been demanded.
- 23.11 On a poll, a shareholder (or his representative or proxy) entitled to more than one vote is in relation to the Company free to vote, in his discretion, all or any of his shares the same way or differently or to abstain from voting in respect of all or any of his shares, as he chooses.
- 23.12 When there are joint holders of any shares any one of such persons may vote as provided for in article 15.3.3.3.

- 24.2 A resolution contemplated in article 24.1 will have been adopted as an ordinary resolution or special resolution, as the case may be, for purposes of the Companies Act if it has been supported in writing by that number of shareholders entitled to exercise voting rights that are sufficient in number for it to have been adopted as an ordinary resolution or special resolution, as the case may be, at a properly constituted shareholders' meeting and, if so adopted, will have the same effect as if it had been approved by voting at a meeting (section 60(2)).
- 24.3 A round-robin resolution of shareholders shall be deemed to have been passed on the date specified in the resolution as the effective date of the resolution (provided that effective date is not a date earlier than the date the resolution was submitted to shareholders for their consideration and, if deemed fit, adoption) or, failing any such effective date being specified in the resolution, shall be deemed to have been passed on the date on which the resolution was approved in writing by the last of the shareholders voting in favour of the resolution (or if that or any other written approval is undated, the date on which such written approval was communicated to the Company) within the 20 (twenty) business days referred to in article 24.1.2, which votes in favour of the resolution in aggregate are sufficient for the resolution to have been passed as an ordinary resolution, or special resolution, as the case may be.
